Johnstone Memorial (Mixed American) & Ambrose Sunday, 21st May 2023

Just on 38 golfers played in the 2 events that took place in pretty good conditions on Sunday. Twelve golfers in 6 pairs played in the main event which was the mixed American Johnstone Memorial, and 26 golfers played in an Ambrose competition.

Donna Gregg and Deane Munro came home winners in the Johnstone memorial making it their third win as a pair. They had a score of 88 gross 71 1/8 net just ahead of Rodney Poole and Tanya Doyle who were runners up with a score of 92 gross 74 6/8 net.

In the Ambrose competition the group of Kale Barker, Joel Grace and Ethan Munro had a win with a net score of 74 and 59.83 gross. Runners up were the group of Roy Latta, Jason Wills, Paul Dean and Reg Dean who had a score of 76 net 61.375. There were 2 nearest the pins and they were Maddie Morrish who had a ripper shot on the 2nd and Paul Dean on the 14th.

On Saturday Brad and Travis Parsons played each other in the knockout match play competition with Brad winning 6&5. So he now advances in the competition to play Scott Brady in the next round.

This week it's another honour being played with the golden putter taking place. This is a 27 hole 4bbb par competition, it's a 9 am assembly with a 9.30 start. Good golfing to all.
